

KLEW-TV
October 2008 – December 2008

1. The Need to Address Donations to Area Food Banks.
2. The Need to Address Substance Abuse.
3. The Need to Address Cultural Entertainment.
4. The Need to Address Increase of Crime.
5. The Need to Address Youth Recognition.

Bob Hayes, Lewis Clark State College Division of Education/Addiction Studies, was interviewed on 10/15/08.

Cheryl DenBleyker, American Red Cross Health & Safety Program Administrator, was interviewed on 10/16/08.

Jenny Zorems, Area Agency on Aging Director of North Central Idaho, was interviewed on 10/20/08.

Craig Rockwell, Lewis Clark State College Elder Hostel Coordinator Planning Committee, was interviewed on 10/22/08.

Kathee Tiff, University of Idaho Nez Perce County Extension Educator, was interviewed on 10/23/08.

KLEW-TV
Issues/Programs List
October 2008 – December 2008

The Need to Address Donations to Area Food Banks

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 11/10/08, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 0:57

Description: KLEW News reported that volunteers got together to assemble and bake pies of Lewis-Clark State College. The project was started by student Joe Gamlem, working with the Community Action Partnership. The goal to bake 250 pies for the Holiday Boxes provided to those in need at Thanksgiving. Local grocers in Lewiston and Clarkston donated left over pumpkins from Halloween to use for the pies and apples were donated from the backyard harvest program. Community Resource Specialist Sabrina Shropshire says they were able to utilize foods that would otherwise be wasted.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 11/14/08, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:31

Description: KLEW News reported it is the season for food drives and rivalries. The University of Idaho Vandals is battling Boise State Broncos for bragging rights. Who can raise the most food for Idaho's food banks? The food drive is in its second year with collection boxes all over campus. Associated Students of University of Idaho organizes the whole thing, with cash prizes going to living groups and organizations that collect the most food.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 11/14/08, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:04

Description: KLEW News reported that DJ's from 101.5 CAT-FM spent the day, and will spend tomorrow-suspended 20 feet above the ground all in the name of charity. The Community Action Partnership Food Bank is looking to provide a happy holiday for those in need. Volunteer Ramona Lentz says they're getting a lot of help from the community and businesses have shown their support. The donations included personal items to can and frozen food as well as turkeys with the truck getting pretty full.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 11/25/08, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:16

Description: KLEW News reported that Community On Call, a faith based organization that tries to bring criminals and troubled citizens back into society, is serving a turkey day feast. Director Steve Scaggs says the volunteers working on food preparation today are the same people who benefited from Community On Call and it's Thanksgiving Dinner in past years. Scaggs anticipates over 200 mouths to feed tonight. The group will serve the Asotin County Jail, and come back to the group dinner.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 11/25/08, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 0:51

Description: KLEW News reported that Potlatch Number One Federal Credit Union stepped up and provided Idaho Food Bank with more than 500 turkeys. Chris Loseth President of Potlatch Credit Union says they support the Idaho Food Bank for their different activities and programs around town. The 500 turkeys will help fill the food bank and reach their goal of giving out twenty five hundred turkeys this holiday season.

The Need to Address Substance Abuse

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 10/2/08, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:33

Description: KLEW News reported that a former methamphetamines addict, Jamie talked to students at Clarkston High School for a presentation on the dangers of drugs. The bantams were told that meth eats holes in their brains, reducing capabilities and that ninety percent of people who try it become addicted after their first hit. The average life span of a daily user is just five years after becoming addicted. She urged students to not even try it once.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 10/21/08, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:16

Description: KLEW News reported that a 21 year old male in Pullman was climbing the outside of the Emerald Downs Apartment complex building and got to the third floor railing and the railing came apart when he fell roughly 2 full stories and landed on his back on a concrete slab. Commander Chris Tennant of the Pullman Police Department says alcohol was involved. Tennant says the police department takes a pro-active stance to warn about these things, but says accidents happen. Alcohol is involved in most falls every year, so police hit alcohol pretty hard.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 11/24/08, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:35

Description: KLEW News reported that Lewiston Police catch four area businesses selling alcohol to minors as part of their Underage Alcohol Compliance Check Operation. As implied, Lewiston Police Department works with Idaho State Police and the Alcohol Beverage Control Bureau. Officer Dave Gobbi says this is an ongoing project they do randomly every year, and some years check two or three times. Some businesses are routinely in violation, and the police make a strong effort to contact those businesses when they're doing this program.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 12/5/08, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 0:34

Description: KLEW News reported that a BMX Bicycle Team performed stunts for the kids and talked about being drug free and staying in school at St. Stanislaus School. The show featured professional riders Jesse Johnson, Ben Voyles, John Bethers and Rex Bermood who jumped, flipped and did other tricks including 360 rail-whips, flares, and wall rides on ramps set up in the school's gym. The traveling team also performed at a school in Pullman.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 12/31/08, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:18

Description: KLEW News reported that local police departments are planning to have their S.T.E.P. team, a special emphasis patrol working the later shift so they can do more observations on DUI type of activity. New Years is typically not the biggest night of the year for drinking and driving because law enforcement agencies prepare for it and increase their presence. They will make a point of driving through taverns parking lots and be seen to let people know that we are out there and will not tolerate drinking and driving.

The Need to Address Cultural Entertainment

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 10/9/08, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 0:22

Description: KLEW News reported that University of Idaho School of Journalism and Mass Media and the Idaho Commons have teamed up for a display of Associated Press photos of American presidents. The photos capture the presidents and their loved ones in serious and not so serious situations. The display will run through October 31st.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 10/10/08, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 0:29

Description: KLEW News reported that The Nez Perce County Museum has a new exhibit of Disney memorabilia. Museum board member Mark Wise owns the collection. Mrs. Disney graduated from Lapwai High and attended college in Lewiston before moving to California in 1923. The museum's exhibit holds photographs, figurines, books and other keepsakes.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 10/13/08, 7:25 a.m.

Duration: 4:30

Description: Northwest Morning host Keith Havens interviewed Judy Mousseau and Donna Baker for the juried art show and sale "Life In The West Art Show." The two week long show was held at JK Sign Shop in Clarkston from 10/10-10/25/08. The community of artists has thirty-two members with all levels of experience and skills. The public is encouraged to join the group where they hold special workshops throughout the year. Artwork was shown that was for sale.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 11/26/08, 7:25 a.m.

Duration: 4:30

Description: Northwest Morning host Keith Havens interviewed Assistant English Professor Kevin Goodan about the Lewis-Clark State College Visiting Writer Series that is free and open to the public. The visiting writers come from locally, regional and national writers to get the community connected. Kim Barnes, University of Idaho professor will visit 12/5 and read from her new non-fiction book. The Visiting Writer Series is a twenty-year program and bring in three or four writers per semester.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 12/3/08, 8:25 a.m.

Duration: 4:30

Description: Northwest Morning host Keith Havens interviewed Judy Wohlert of the Nez Perce National Historical Park for the Second Annual Bazaar held December 6th 9AM-3PM. Nez Perce native vendors bring incredible gift items such as locally made coin purse, medallion necklaces, native beadwork bags, moccasin ornaments, weaved tote bags plus kits for aspiring weavers to make pine needle baskets.

The Need to Address Increase of Crime

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 11/13/08, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:02

Description: KLEW News reported that Pullman police officers are a step away from a new contract. City supervisor John Sherman says the City of Pullman and the Pullman Police Officers Guild have reached an agreement on a labor contract. The proposed contract provides for four different wage increases, which will take effect every six months beginning January of 2009. The contract puts Pullman Police in a good position in terms of recruiting and retaining employees and is in line with what they consider to be our comparables.

Date/Time: 11/18/08, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:46

Description: KLEW News reported that The Asotin County Sheriff's Office keeps track of convicted sex offenders and you now can too with Tammy Leavitt-Offender Watch, a private agency that has come up with a program on the computer that makes it easier to track sex offenders. Asotin County went live with the website on Friday along with five other Washington State counties. The Sheriff's office hopes the program will help citizens to be more aware of their surroundings and safety.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 11/18/08, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:25

Description: KLEW News reported that Nez Perce County is just beginning a relationship with a company called STOP or the Satellite Tracking of People. County Court Services Director John Triplett says much like the regular electronic monitoring unit that hooks on the ankle of an offender, it now is also a satellite unit with cell phone technology. Now police can track someone anywhere, anytime from a computer while using the map feature and zoom in on the exact house that they're at any given moment, or spot on the highway.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 11/20/08, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:48

Description: KLEW News reported that Centennial Elementary School evaluates their crisis plan after an abduction scare this week. The school went into lockdown mode after two suspicious incidents regarding children on their way to school. Ron Rees, Centennial Principal says as soon as you hear something that sounds like abduction, you call 911. Get the district to contact the local schools and immediately, look at your perimeters and secure the facility. Lewiston Police saturated the area immediately with patrol personnel, investigative personnel and plain cars. Police now are calling it a misunderstanding when an elderly couple offered to help a child cross the street.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 11/28/08, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:00

Description: KLEW News reported the down economy might cause a rise in shoplifting. Actions news talked with multiple stores today, which say they have security cameras, sensors, detectors and loss prevention officers in place to make sure nothing leaves the store without a receipt. Lewiston Police Officer Cory Blair says they usually see a rise in theft during the holidays. Each store approaches the misdemeanor offense a little differently. Blair says the police get involved when the store decides to press charges.

The Need to Address Youth Recognition

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 10/30/08, 5:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:13

Description: KLEW News reported that each week KLEW News teams up with Lewiston Orthopedic Associates to feature an outstanding local high school student as our Academic All Star. This weeks Academic All Star was Jamie Bannock a senior at Potlatch High School who may as well be the athletic all-star and philanthropic all-star of Potlatch High School. Jamie is the head of a group called "Kicks for Kids" – getting athletic shoes for students who can't afford them. Bannock says the group gets lots of donations of shoes and money, take the money and go buy the shoes, and bring them back to school and give them to people.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 11/27/08, 5:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:12

Description: KLEW News reported that each week KLEW News teams up with Lewiston Orthopedic Associates to feature an outstanding local high school student as our Academic All Star. This weeks Academic All Star was Lewiston High School senior Chris Schnider. Chris has won many academic awards like national honor society and the President's Education Award. He is also in Writers Corner and Save, which is an environmental science club. Chris says they've planted trees and so a lot of water quality testing.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 12/5/08, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:19

Description: KLEW News reported that Students at Asotin are working on a food drive. Sue Beggs, 7th and 8th grade teacher says students were out delivering plastic bags that have a letter asking for food for the food drive while students at the school were decorating the food baskets for people who are in need and need food. The whole idea started when the principal asked for ideas on how the school could get more involved with the community. To help get the students excited they made it into a competition.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 12/9/08, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:07

Description: KLEW News reported that Whitman Elementary school students in Lewiston decorated for the holidays the Salvation Army Soup Kitchen. Each month Whitman students celebrate a character trait. This month it's service. Whitman Elementary Librarian Peggy Brockmann says each grade had their specialty. The fifth graders took care of the ornaments, which included notes with holiday gift ideas that don't cost a cent.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 12/18/08, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 0:59

Description: KLEW News reported that Clarkston High School students presented gifts to over sixty families that they adopted for Christmas. Students bought stuffed animals, mittens, hats and family game activities. The Clarkston Bantams say giving back made them feel good too. The students even delivered presents to the families who were unable to come to the school.